A CUP OF PRIME COFFEE
 is what goes straight to the heart of every man at breakfast time, and everyone knows that only good grocers keep good coffee. We take special pride in our brands, as they have made our store famous. Just as good as the coffee we sell are our teas, which principle holds good throughout our entire stock. We sell nothing but the best of food products—those we have tested ourselves, and so can swear by them.

Regular services at Temple Albert, Friday evening at 7:45. Rabbi Kaplan will lecture on "Orthodoxy and Reform in Judaism." Everybody is welcome.

Miss F. M. Blackall, of Rochester, N. Y., who arrived in the city the other day, has a desk at the Alvarado, where she accepts orders for senographic work.

Temple Lodge No. 6, A. F. & A. M., will hold its regular communication Thursday, December 7, at 7:30 p. m. By order of the worshipful master, J. C. Perger, secretary.

J. L. LaDriere, the architect, has moved his residence from 521 New York avenue, to the corner of Fourth street and State avenue, in one of the pretty Thelin cottages.

The remains of Bruce Smith, a wealthy mine owner of Bellefontaine, Ohio, who died in this city yesterday evening after an illness of several weeks, were shipped to that place today for burial.

R. P. Hall, of the Albuquerque Foundry and Machine works, who enjoyed Thanksgiving with Mrs. Hall and daughter at Hollywood, Cal., has returned to the city and will remain a couple of weeks.

"Heart Power" will be the subject of an address to be given under the auspices of the Christian church, in the Women's club rooms next Sunday at 7:30 p. m. M. E. Hickey will deliver the address.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bays, of Bakersfield, Cal., have arrived in Albuquerque, and will make this city their future home. Mr. Bays is a paper hanger and interior decorator, and expects to open a shop here in the near future.

At the Elks' theater on Saturday, matinee and night, the All-Star Specialty company will present a new and novel program. New songs, new jokes, new music, in minstrel vaudeville and comedy. Prices, matinee, 15 and 25c; evening, 25, 35 and 50c.

Jack Harris, the Holt canyon miner, is in the city interviewing old Santa Claus at the various toy stores. Jack is a great admirer of little children, especially those of the mountain kind, and about this time of the year he comes to town to pick out his Christmas presents before the rush.

J. W. Love, one of the proprietors of the Albuquerque planing mill, while working on one of the machines known as the shaper, had the misfortune to get his left hand caught in it with the result that he is now minus his thumb, which was cut off close to the hand. A physician was called and dressed the wound, which will keep Mr. Love from working for some time to come.

The "Best People on Earth," as the Elks are popularly known, have opened their new club rooms in the Elks' hall and extend a cordial invitation to all local and visiting Elks to drop in and make themselves at home in the new rooms. The rooms are neatly fitted out with pool and billiard tables, all late periodicals, and its appointments are of the most luxurious nature. It is expected to fill a long felt want with those of the undlered faith.

Miss Claude Albright, the talented daughter of Colonel and Mrs. J. G. Albright, is the leading lady in the Savage English Grand Opera company, and will appear at the Lafayette theater, Washington, D. C., next week, beginning with Monday, December 11. At present there are many New Mexicans at the national capital, and they will now have the opportunity of hearing this territory's charming prima donna.

Among the many pretty residences in course of construction in Albuquerque is that of Dr. B. H. Briggs, of the Alvarado pharmacy, which is being erected at 802 West Gold avenue. When completed, the house will be a six-room affair, modern in all appointments, with wide verandas on each side, and will cost in the neighborhood of $15,000. Work on the basement has been completed and the carpenters will start on the frame work in a few days.

The funeral of Prof. William Astor was held from the chapel of Alvarado's undertaking parlors this morning at 10 o'clock. A large number of friends attended the services and accompanied the remains to the cemetery. Many beautiful floral offerings were in evidence.

Deputy Master Wells received a telegram last evening from J. A. Cahill, which stated that $50 had been deposited at San Francisco for transportation of Arthur Mool and Steve Roas to that city. The "boys" mentioned, were removed from a trunk in a horse car attached to train No. 1 Monday evening, when they were leaving their way over the road. As both of the youngsters were released yesterday morning by the police and started on a home trip to San Francisco, the local authorities were unable to notify them of their good fortune.

Mrs. J. M. Dennis, who resided in this city several years ago, is here on business, and while in the city is the guest of Mrs. Don J. Rankin. Mrs. Dennis is the wife of the well-known lumber man and mill owner of Rhoads, Ariz., and on Saturday or Sunday evening she will return to Rhoads, and from there, accompanied by Mr. Dennis and daughter, continue to their home at San Jose, Cal. It is quite probable before Mrs. Dennis returns west she will dispose of her two-story frame residence on North Fourth street, at present occupied by Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Kunz.

The ranges of New Mexico are in better condition for the feeding of cattle than ever before, according to K. F. Gunn, of the firm of Gunn, Brothers and Laguna, dealers in cattle and general merchandise, who is in Albuquerque for a few days transacting business connected with his mercantile store at Laguna. Before returning home Mr. Gunn will go to the ranges where he expects to buy several thousands of head of stock from the ranges around Laguna. "Grass is plentiful, so is water, and all in all, the ranges are in the very finest condition for the feeding of cattle," said Mr. Gunn.

Those who dine at the Alvarado tonight will be treated to some of the finest music ever heard in Albuquerque. An orchestra, consisting of seven pieces, under the leadership of Senor Felix Garcia, arrived this morning from the City of Mexico, and are spending the day in the city while waiting for a train for San Francisco, where Senor Garcia has a contract to furnish music at the St. Francis hotel during the winter months. Senor Garcia carried a card from W. S. Farnsworth, general agent of the Mexican Central railway, to Manager Heathman of the Alvarado, which made it possible for Mr. Heathman to secure the orchestra for this evening.
